ORLANDO FOOD SALES is a third generation food importing company based out of New Jersey, specialized in the marketing and distribution of high quality food products to foodservice distributors across the USA. They maintain a strict focus on quality product lines, working on an exclusive basis, be it regionally or nationally, with manufacturers to represent their products in the foodservice trade. Orlando Food Sales maintains a small and cohesive product range rather than a large catalogue of goods in order to provide greater knowledge and service to their customers.
