

STAHL-MEYER | ITS SUMMER AND THIS IS AMERICA. TO US, THIS MEANS ONLY ONE THING: HOT DOGS. BUT IN ORDER FOR BALDOR'S MEAT DEPARTMENT TO GET BEHIND A NEW HOT DOG LINE, SOME REQUIREMENTS MUST BE MET. FIRST, THEY HAVE TO BE PROCESSED ACCORDING THE HIGHEST QUALITY STANDARDS. SECOND, THEY NEED TO BE AFFORDABLE—IF IT'S SERVED AT A BASEBALL GAME, WE DON'T WANT TO PAY AN ARM AND A LEG FOR IT.

THE FACT THAT STAHL-MEYER'S FRANKS MEET THESE REQUIREMENTS IS NO SURPRISE. THEY BASICALLY INVENTED THE HOT DOG IN AMERICA. FOUNDED IN RIDGEWOOD, QUEENS, THE COMPANY HAS CONTINUOUSLY PRODUCED HOT DOGS SINCE THE MID 1800'S. TODAY, STAHL-MEYER REMAINS COMMITTED TO THE TRADITIONS SAME TRADITIONS THAT MADE THEM THE BEST OVER A CENTURY AGO.
