ABOUT GOLDEN

Golden Meat Co. (formerly under the name Golden Packing) has a century's worth of experience in best-in-class butchery. Top restaurants and steakhouses trust our craftsmanship and dry aging for a reason—we source premium, thoughtfully raised meat, and cut it right. Period. The result? Serious flavor. If it's not the best, we don't sell it.

Golden Meat Co. is quality meat, done right. Below are some offerings from our growing catalog, exclusively available through Baldor Specialty Foods.

HOW WE SOURCE

Premium or it doesn't make the cut. We're talking 100% Premium Northern Black Angus beef from independent family farms and ranchers. What does that mean for you? Complete traceability, exceptional marbling, and rock-solid consistency. We've teamed up with DemKota, Niman Ranch, and more heavy hitters because quality matters. So, when you see Golden Meat Co., you know you're getting meat you can count on.
