PEAK SEASON PRODUCE

There's something quietly thrilling about the return to fall—crisp heirloom apples and just-picked grapes, specialty squash in every shape and color, hearty greens that sweeten after the first frost, and the earthy roots pulled from cooler ground. These are the flavors that set the stage for hearty fall and winter menus. Put the best of the harvest in front of your customers, and let the season's bounty lead.

NEW WAGYU BEEF

We've recently added two outstanding Wagyu partners to our protein lineup. Snake River Farms, the pioneers of American Wagyu, are known for exceptional marbling, buttery richness, and remarkable beefy flavor. And Japanese Wagyu from Kyushu Wagyu sets the global standard for tenderness and depth.

Snake River Farms

Founded in 1968, Snake River Farms pioneered American Wagyu by crossing prized Japanese Wagyu with high-quality American cattle. Nearly 60 years later, the family-owned company still partners with trusted family ranches across the West to raise the finest beef possible. What sets these cuts apart is their rich marbling, yielding a buttery texture with a robust, beefy flavor. This is just a sampling of what we have in store—stay tuned for more additions to our Snake River Farms lineup.

Kyushu Wagyu

Home to some of the world's finest Wagyu, Kyushu is the southernmost of Japan's four main islands, defined by mild climate, clean water, open land, and generations of farmers devoted to a single pursuit: raising the finest cattle on earth. Here, cattle are raised slowly and deliberately, and the results have set the global standard for marbling, tenderness, and depth of flavor: beef so richly intramuscular it turns silky on the palate, with a buttery character and clean finish that need little more than salt and heat to shine.

Celebrated worldwide for its unparalleled tenderness and rich, buttery flavor, Japanese A5 Wagyu is Japan's highest marbling grade. We offer the following cuts from Kyushu Wagyu.
