

COCOJUNE

New York

A vegan creamy probiotic plant-based yogurt made from cultured organic coconut milk.

About Cocojune

Cocojune harnesses the age old discipline of fermentation to create creamy probiotic coconut-based yogurts. Their backgrounds range from food manufacturing to design - with stints in finance, tech and biodynamic farming. A company-wide commitment to organic agriculture guarantees that cocojune is 100% free from GMOs and toxic pesticides. These underlying principles ensure higher bio-diversity, cleaner water and healthier plants - ultimately healthier food and people! They have found themselves in the midst of a plant-based revolution with innovation and customer curiosity sprinting arm in arm. These are really fun and hopeful times!
