About Good & Green

It is not often that you hear "vegetarian" and "deli slices" in the same sentence, but Good & Green has done just that with their plant-based deli slices. This new line of vegetarian deli slices are USDA organic, soy-free and cholesterol free. These vegetarian deli slices are produced in a new dedicated factory with cutting edge technology and rigorous testing that is performed in all phases of production. Textured like deli meat, Good & Green Deli Slices are delicious source of plant based protein, easy to digest and make a healthy and ideal deli alternative. Enjoy a healthy lifestyle with four great options: Veggie Prosciutto, Veggie Carpaccio, Veggie Lupini Beans and Spicy Veggie.
