Old Chatham, NY
Shepherding Company.

About Old Chatham

Old Chatham Shepherding Company was born in 1993 when Tom and Nancy Clark bought 600 acres of lush grassy fields. Old Chatham's Camembert, Ewe's Blue, Kinderhook Creek and sheep's milk yogurts have since won numerous awards and appear on restaurant menus and in the cheese cases of the best specialty food stores throughout the country. Since 2012, Dave and Sally Galton of Shepherd's Way LLC, have been housing their own herd of sheep on the Clark's farm and providing the creamery business with their sheep's milk. The new farm offers the sheep a very friendly animal environment where the highest quality milk can be produced. The Galton's purchased Old Chatham Shepherding Company from Tom and Nancy in December of 2014 and continue to produce Old Chatham's original line of artisanal cheeses and sheep's milk yogurts.
