About Scarborough Farms

For over 20 years, Scarborough Farm has been dedicated to growing some of the highest quality, most vibrant specialty produce on the planet. Their small-scale, custom farming methods ensure fresh, just-harvested gourmet products that taste wonderful and have a longer shelf-life. Scarborough Farms also has a reputation for deeply caring for the land and for fulfilling the ever-evolving tastes of American cuisine. Established only in the United States, Scarborough Farms produce is grown according to strict state and federal regulations. They follow good agricultural practices to ensure that everything they grow is not only beautiful and nutritious, but safe to eat, as well.

Full Blanched Circus Frisee

12 CT

A member of the chicory family, frisee has delicately slender, curly leaves that range in color from yellow-white to yellow-green. This feathery vegetable has a mildly bitter flavor. Our Premium Blanched frisee has a higher percentage of blanched (yellow) leaves with virtually no green leaves, making it a 100% usable product.
