

TARTUFLANGHE

Piobesi d'Alba, Italy

A taste of Alba.

About Tartuflanghe

Domenica Bertolusso and Beppe Montanaro, founders of the company, started their experience in the truffle world in 1968, marketing the fresh truffle from the Piedmont region. During that period, their restaurant Da Beppe, located in the heart of Ristorante da Beppef Alba, was considered a landmark by truffle and mushrooms lovers and by the Michelin guide. Tartuflanghe was born in 1980 to exploit Beppe's experience and creativity, built through a prestigious formative experience: he was a Chef Soucier on cruise ships from 1958 to 1966, teacher in a Culinary Institute, chef in the best piemontese restaurants and then owner of his famous restaurant. The company's name derives from an intuition that Domenica had: she joined the Italian word for truffle with the name of the origin territory of this precious tuber, the Langhe area.
