

The Jackfruit Company Naked Jackfruit

About The Jackfruit Company

Since 2011, their company has been building ethical & sustainable jackfruit supply chains to introduce this miracle crop to the world. They partner directly with growers in India and Vietnam, supporting the livelihoods of over 1,000 farming families. Global Village Fruit was founded by social entrepreneur Annie Ryu* when she was a college pre-med student. She discovered jackfruit on her first visit to India and saw extraordinary opportunity to transform a wasted natural resource into delicious and nutritious food.
