Bronx, NY

Home cooking shouldn't require a subscription.

About Urban Roots

Urban Roots was created on the ideas that cooking should be both effortless and high quality. Our vegetable side kits are developed by a team of in house chefs in order to pass these beliefs onto our customers. The kits are produced in our Bronx-based, HACCP-accredited, facility. In less than 24 hours they go from whole to cut and on to the shelves. Why? Because fresh home cooking shouldn't require a subscription.
